Match background

Ferencváros trail Young Boys 3-2 as their UEFA Champions League play-off concludes in Budapest with the champions of Hungary and Switzerland vying for a place in the group stage.

- Franck Boli (14) struck first for the Hungarian side in Berne but the Swiss title holders quickly hit back through Meschack Elia (16). Young Boys right-back Silvan Hefti was then shown a red card in conceding a penalty that Myrto Uzuni drilled against the post (27) before goals from Vincent Sierro (40) and Ulisses Garcia (65) put the home team in charge, only for Boli to leave the tie in the balance with the visitors' second eight minutes from time.
- Both teams have recently featured in the UEFA Champions League group stage; YB made their debut in 2018/19 while Ferencváros appeared for the second time, and the first in 25 years, last season.
- The first leg was the sides' first UEFA encounter, although each has plenty of experience against clubs from their opponents' country.

Form guide

Ferencváros

- Having claimed their 32nd league title – and third in succession – in 2020/21, Ferencváros are looking to make their second successive appearance in the UEFA Champions League group stage.
- A side coached by Serhiy Rebrov made their first group appearance since 1995/96 last season, coming through four qualifying rounds to reach the group stage. They finished fourth in a section also featuring Juventus, Barcelona and Dynamo Kyiv, their sole point a 2-2 home draw against the Ukrainian club.
- Peter Stöger succeeded Rebrov as coach in the summer, the Ukrainian having won the Hungarian First League in each of his three seasons in charge.
- Ferencváros defeated Molde on away goals in the 2020/21 play-offs (3-3 a, 0-0 h), their first appearance at that stage of the UEFA Champions League. They also beat Sūduva of Lithuania in the 2019/20 UEFA Europa League play-offs (0-0 a, 4-2 h), their only other play-off tie in UEFA club competition.
- Ferencváros lost in UEFA Champions League qualifying five times between their two group appearances.
- Ferencváros have already played seven matches in this season's UEFA Champions League campaign, which began in the first qualifying round. They eased past Prishtina of Kosovo (3-0 h, 3-1 a) and Žalgiris of Lithuania (2-0 h, 3-1 a) before a 2-0 first-leg win at home to Sparta Praha set up a 2-1 aggregate success in the third qualifying round.
- The Budapest club have therefore won their last three home European matches without conceding, scoring seven goals themselves.
- Ferencváros have managed only one win in their six fixtures against Swiss clubs (D2 L3); at home their record is D2 L1, the defeat having come in the most recent encounter, against Basel in the 2004/05 UEFA Cup group stage (1-2). Their only previous knockout tie against Swiss opposition was a 2-1 aggregate loss to Zürich in the 1982/83 UEFA Cup second round (1-1 h, 0-1 a).
- No Hungarian club has ever featured in successive UEFA Champions League group stages; Ferencváros's 2020/21 appearance was the country's first since Debrecen in 2009/10.
- Ferencváros have lost on aggregate in 18 of the 21 UEFA competition ties in which they were beaten away in the first leg, most recently against Rijeka in the 2014/15 UEFA Europa League second qualifying round (0-1 a, 1-2 h). Their only success in the last 15 instances was on penalties against CSKA Moskva in the first round of the 1994/95 UEFA Cup Winners' Cup (1-2 a, 2-1 h). Their sole previous 3-2 away first-leg defeat, against Werder Bremen in the 1991/92 European Cup Winners' Cup second round, was followed by a 1-0 home loss.
- Ferencváros's record in six penalty shoot-outs in UEFA competition is W3 L3, the defeats having all come in the last three:
 - 5-4 v Željezničar, 1971/72 UEFA Cup quarter-final
 - 7-6 v CSKA Moskva, 1994/95 UEFA Cup Winners' Cup first round
 - 4-3 v Helsingborg, 1997/98 UEFA Cup second qualifying round
 - 4-5 v Hajduk Split, 2001/02 UEFA Champions League second qualifying round
 - 2-3 v Copenhagen, 2003/04 UEFA Cup first round
 - 1-3 v Partizani, 2016/17 UEFA Champions League second qualifying round

Young Boys

- Champions of Switzerland in each of the last four seasons, YB are attempting to successfully negotiate UEFA Champions League qualifying for only the second time. In 2018/19, Gerardo Seoane's side beat Dinamo Zagreb in the play-offs, winning 2-1 in the second leg in Croatia to complete a 3-2 aggregate triumph.

- That was Young Boys' only play-off success in five attempts – they fell at this stage in 2010/11 against Tottenham (3-6 aggregate), 2016/17 against Borussia Mönchengladbach (2-9 agg), 2017/18 against CSKA Moskva (0-3 agg) and 2019/20 against Crvena zvezda (3-3 agg, lost on away goals). This season is their ninth UEFA Champions League campaign.
- In the 2018/19 group stage, the Berne club finished bottom of a section involving Juventus, Manchester United and Valencia – although they did claim their first win in the UEFA Champions League proper against the Bianconeri on Matchday 6, winning 2-1 at home.
- YB's 2020/21 UEFA Champions League campaign lasted only two matches; they beat KÍ of the Faroe Islands 3-1 at home in the second qualifying round but then lost 3-0 at Danish side Midtjylland.
- The Swiss club therefore moved into the UEFA Europa League, beating Tirana in the play-offs (3-0 h) before finishing second behind Roma in Group A. They got the better of Bayer Leverkusen in the round of 32 (4-3 h, 2-0 a) before bowing out against Ajax in the last 16 (0-3 a, 0-2 h).
- Young Boys have already played five games in the 2021/22 UEFA Champions League, drawing both away and winning all three at home. They eliminated Slovan Bratislava in the second qualifying round (0-0 a, 3-2 h) and CFR Cluj in the third (1-1 a, 3-1 h) before their first-leg win in this tie.
- With Seoane having departed for Leverkusen in the summer after three years in charge, David Wagner took over as Young Boys coach on 1 July.
- Young Boys have now won six of their nine games against Hungarian clubs, most recently before this tie defeating Debrecen in the 2014/15 UEFA Europa League play-offs (3-1 h, 0-0 a). That goalless draw made it three games unbeaten away to Hungarian teams, since a 2-1 defeat in Budapest against Vasas in the 1957/58 European Cup first round second leg (2-3 aggregate). That is YB's only defeat by Hungarian opponents, making their overall record in knockout ties W3 L1.
- YB have won six of their last seven games against Hungarian sides, although the goalless second-leg draw against Debrecen in 2014 is their only clean sheet in those fixtures.
- There have been ten previous UEFA ties in which Young Boys won the first leg at home. They were eliminated on four of the first five occasions, all after having one-goal leads overturned, the exception against Hungarian opposition as they beat Debrecen in the 2008/09 UEFA Cup second qualifying round (4-1 h, 3-2 a), but have won the last five such ties, most recently ousting Leverkusen in last season's UEFA Europa League round of 32. Their sole previous 3-2 home first-leg win came in the UEFA Champions League play-offs, against Tottenham in 2010/11; they lost 4-0 away.
- Young Boys' record in two UEFA penalty shoot-outs is W2 L0:
4-1 v Zimbru Chisinau, 2012/13 UEFA Europa League second qualifying round
4-2 v Shakhtar Donetsk, 2016/17 UEFA Champions League third qualifying round

Links and trivia

- Ferencváros midfielder Bálint Vécsei played for Swiss side Lugano between 2016 and 2020, when he joined the Hungarian club. His record in eight games against Young Boys was D3 L5.
- Stöger's 65th and final international appearance for Austria was in a 4-2 friendly win against Switzerland in St Gallen on 10 March 1999. His first cap had also come against Switzerland – a 2-1 defeat in Monaco on 5 February 1988.
- Neither Ferencváros nor Young Boys were in domestic action at the weekend.
