Match background

- The Netherlands have six points after beating Norway and Denmark 1-0.
- Belgium are three points adrift, losing their debut 1-0 to Denmark but then beating Norway 2-0.
- The Low Countries teams' past ten competitive meetings have been in qualifiers.
- Most recently they met on the road to the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup, and the Netherlands drew 1-1 at home and won 2-0 away on their way to the finals.
- Playing Belgium has brought good luck for the Dutch, who not only faced them en route to their World Cup debut of 2015 but also in earning their UEFA Women's EURO bow in 2009.
- The Netherlands have won seven of those previous ten matches, and Belgium just one.
- That sole Belgian success came in both sides' first competition fixture, a 3-2 victory in Brussels on 25 September 1982 in qualifying for the first European tournament of 1984.
- Including friendlies, these neighbours have played each other 25 times, the Netherlands winning 18 to Belgium's three, with four draws. The Dutch lead 66-19 on goals.
- Davina Philtjens of Belgium plays alongside Si[[e Folkertsma, Stefanie van der Gragt, Desiree van Lunteren, Liza van der Most and Kelly Zeeman at Dutch champions Ajax.
- Another Dutch-based Belgian is Lenie Onzia, a Twente colleague of Kika van Es, Renate Jansen and Sherida Spitse. Last season Belgium's Lenie Onzia and Netherlands players Lineth Beerensteyn and Siri Worm were also at the club.
- For three seasons between 2012 and 2015 these nations merged their top women's divisions into the BeNe League.
- Twente won the first two seasons and Standard Liège the third. The highest-placed club from each country qualified for the UEFA Women's Champions League.

Team facts

Belgium

EURO 2013: Third in qualifying group

EURO best: First qualification

How they qualified: Group 7 runners-up, W5 D2 L1 F27 A5 Pts17

Coach: Ives Serneels

One to watch: Tessa Wullaert (forward, Wolfsburg)

What to watch out for: A gradual improvement since Ives Serneels took over in 2011 has resulted in a maiden qualification for Belgium. In 2013 qualifying, they were just two points behind second-placed Iceland (and four off Norway), losing only one of their four games against that pair.

A similarly promising showing in 2015 World Cup qualifying boosted their seeding for this tournament, and they comfortably made it through behind England, whom they held away from home. Foreign club experience for the likes of Justien Odeurs, Lorca Van de Putte, Janice Cayman and all-time top scorer Tessa Wullaert has certainly enhanced their credentials.

Netherlands (hosts)

EURO 2013: Group stage

EURO best: Semi-finals (2009)

How they qualified: Automatically as hosts

Coach: Sarina Wiegman

One to watch: Vivianne Miedema (forward, Bayern München)

What to watch out for: Having made their breakthrough as the steely defensive side that reached the EURO semi-finals on debut under Vera Pauw, the Netherlands have become a team more in the classic Dutch mould under first Roger Reijnders and, until his departure in December, Arjan van der Laan. With the former still in charge, they earned a FIFA Women's World Cup bow in 2015, narrowly losing to eventual runners-up Japan in the last 16.

With no qualification duties this time, they have kept themselves busy, playing 13 games in 2017. The recent retirement of forward Manon Melis has put the spotlight even more firmly on Miedema, whose goals – with the youngster fresh from winning the 2014 WU19 EURO – propelled the Netherlands to the World Cup.
